

I strongly ask you to continue the current ownership rules.
Consolidation will only limit the diversity of information that the public receives. A successful democracy needs a well informed public. THis change smacks of special interest coddling.